Getting Back
to the Basics

Getting Back to Basics — A New Beginning

Did you know that New Year's is the oldest, most universal holiday? According to research, annual harvests provided an easy way to keep track of the years which means, the end of the harvest traditionally marked the beginning of a new year. Going back through history — about 4,000 years — this annual ending of a year and the starting of a new one took place on the vernal equinox (in March) when the sun crosses the equator, and day and night are of equal length everywhere.

It was not until 45 B.C. under the Julian calendar, developed by Julius Caesar, and later in 1582 under the Gregorian calendar, the calendar in use today, that Jan. 1, became the official first day of the new year. However, this tradition has been brought down through history. This time of year is marked symbolically as a time for renewal, rebirth, or new beginnings.

Therefore, I would like to take this opportunity to reflect on the new year before us. For American Income and National Income, now is the time to focus on the new year — a new beginning — where resolutions need to be made, goals need to be set, and new possibilities for improvement need to be contemplated.

I also want to take this opportunity to give you an ego boost. I firmly believe this sales force is capable of anything — we have proven that time and time again — and I know we are ready for new objectives because you are always willing to go the extra mile.

This month, I am not going to bore you with the same-old, same-old, but I would like to leave you with some food for thought.

This past December, American Income and National Income lost two of our own — Alan Martyn, an SGA in London, Ontario, Canada, and Patty George, a PR Representative with the Paul Rumbac Agency. Alan had been with American Income for 15 years, hired by Rick Altig in 1989. Patty, on the other hand, had only just begun her career and journey with American Income in Michigan.

These two associates will be greatly missed and I would like to extend my sympathies to their families for the loss they have endured this holiday season.

Whether you have been with this organization 20 years or two months, I want you to know everyone's contribution is significant. Life is too short not to maximize the potential of each and every day. There are bound to be bumps along the way, but together we can face these obstacles and overcome them. I want you to remember as we head out into our new beginning that you can find consistency and progress in simplicity. That is why I believe it is important to keep it simple, get back to the basics and get better at it.

It is a new beginning — a re-emergence — for American Income and National Income, and now is the time for us to relentlessly focus on our future by taking advantage of, and maximizing our daily opportunities.

I am not asking for a huge adjustment. I am just asking that you get better at that which you are already good. However, there is always fine print with any new objective — not to worry it too is pretty simple. The only thing I ask is that you stay focused, remain committed, and persevere as we begin our new year and our new direction.

Remember each day is the beginning of a new road and you, and only you, can determine where it will lead. Henry Emerson Fosdick said, "He who chooses the beginning of a road chooses the place it leads to. It is the means that determines the ends." With this, I want to encourage each of you to set yourself at the beginning of a new road and chart your path because it is you who will determine your own success and ultimately the Company's success as well.

Dates to Remember

Thursday, Jan. 27, 2005

All business and PR credits must be turned into the Home Office to count for January production.

Thursday, Feb. 24, 2005

All business and PR credits must be turned into the Home Office to count for February production.

Total Bonuses Paid Out

This month AIL and NILICO paid a total of $545,553.71 in bonuses. For more information on the monthly bonuses, turn to Page 15.

Required Retention Rate

Effective Jan. 1, 2005, to be eligible for bonuses and featured in Spotlight, top Producers must meet the required Retention rate or the minimum Net to Gross. Net to Gross is used only during the Producer's first eight months.

Retention:	68.0%
Net to Gross:	78%

Congratulations are in Order!

Bryan P. Johnson, an Individual Producer with the Bob Olson Agency, achieved $100,000 of 13-month in force premium.

Joseph Moore, an MGA with the Tom Williams Agency, achieved $100,000 of 13-month in force premium.

Crystal Valentine, an Individual Producer with the Steve Hartman Agency, achieved $100,000 of 13-month in force premium.

Look for the Asterisk

The asterisks, shown throughout the magazine, indicate that place will be a year-to-date award winner. The Producers, who will be recognized at the Cancun Awards Presentation, are as follows: the top SGA from each category, the top two PR Managers and the top two PR Representatives from each category, the top five MGAs, the top five GAs, the top SA, and the top ten Individual Producers. Check your production! If there is an asterisk by your position, you could be on your way to The Fiesta Americana in Cancun, Mexico! The convention will be held June 26-29, 2005.

Child Safe Reminder

Last year we notified you regarding some changes which were required for the Child Safe Kits and other marketing materials referencing Child Safe. Please make sure that any old Child Safe Kits, those utilizing the blue artwork, are discarded and no longer used. You should only be using the new Child Safe Kits and boxes with the red artwork.

We appreciate your compliance with this issue. If you have any questions, please contact your SGA.

Reinstatement Bonus Reminder

As we continue the reinstatement bonus program into 2005, the following is just a reminder of the guidelines that are used when determining if a reinstatement is eligible for bonus:

- Must be a life case recoded to a different Agent, on bank draft with all back premiums collected by applicant check from the account being drafted.
- Returned items and lapses count as eligible cases.

Case can only qualify one time — we have created a database of policies for which the bonus/advance was paid and it's monitored so we don't pay on any one case more than once.

If a case is reinstated and lapses, we will not chargeback, but it will not count for bonus a second time.

The bonus is 25 percent of the annualized premium. If a case is in its first year, an advance is given to the Agent and charged to their account. If the case is in sub-year, a bonus is given to the Agent and the company is charged.

Bonuses/advances are paid monthly by the 15th of the following month. Agents must be active as of the bonus date to be eligible.

If you have any questions regarding reinstatement bonuses or reinstatements in general, please e-mail reinstatements@aillife.com.

Controlled Business

Controlled business is applications written on an Agent, their immediate family, or where the Agent is the payer on the policy.

We do not advance on controlled business sales, nor is production credit given.

You are responsible for marking controlled business, so it is easily distinguished, at the top of every controlled business application. In addition, the transmittal has been updated with a blank for listing controlled business. Please mark this blank as well.

Save yourself confusion down the road by marking your controlled business.

American Income Life

For over half a century, American Income Life Insurance Company has been meeting union families' needs. We are a leader in the union insurance market, and are totally committed to meeting the needs of union members through personal one-on-one service and complete Home Office customer support. You can count on AIL to do what it says it will do.

Here We Grow Again

"Here We Grow Again", is a slogan you hear many successful companies using to attract new employees.

We all know our track record at American Income and National Income as one of the fastest growing insurance companies in the world. How did we get there? Well, there are several factors, but we too used catchy slogans to attract and motivate people to want to recruit, and still others to come to work for American Income and National Income. I am sure you all can remember "2000 in 2000" or "Step Up So Others Can Step In."

All of us know these slogans may have been the battle cry that motivated us to grow, but it was the hard work and determination of the individuals within our Agency forces that allowed us to grow. How did we do it? We did it by recruiting and promoting at a pace never before seen in the history of American Income and National Income.

There are so many tools (this is my catchy word for bonus programs) that if you take advantage of them all you can truly experience Opportunity Unlimited.

First, there is the Personal Recruiting Bonus. Where else but American Income and National Income can you get bonuses for showing a friend or someone you meet the opportunity?

Second, there is the Leadership Bonus, which you can qualify for by leading and managing other Agents.

Third, there are new contract and commission levels where managers can increase to a higher contract rate with the more Agents they are managing.

How can you not grow your Agency with all the tools available to you right now?

Growth is something we all want to accomplish whether it be personal, business, or faith. I believe you can accomplish all three when you lead your Agency to new heights and help other Agents reach their goals as well.

Here we grow again; what will your role be? Make it a big one!

WOW, What a PR Summit!

The Public Relations Summit, held last December, was designed to support the new Company theme, "Back to basics and getting better at it!" At the same time, the summit prepared each Public Relations Rep with the tools they will need to reach their goals in 2005.

This first ever PR Summit was a huge success. We would like to thank all those who attended and all those who helped make this meeting a great success. Check out the feedback below.

"Wow! Whatta [meeting]! I can honestly tell you that in my many years of attending [these types of meetings], the American Income and National Income Public Relations Summit was perhaps one of the very best organized, informative, motivational, and inspirational — it was fun too!"

Patty George

"Congrats to all of you for pulling off an extraordinary and unprecedented event. I felt rejuvenated and recommitted."

George Farenthold

"Wow! In my nine and half years, I have never had such a wonderful trip to Waco! All of you and the PR Council put together great tools for us to go forward. I sincerely appreciate the time everyone spent to make the summit a huge success!"

Patti Morgan

"You and your team have exploded that mythical box. All of your forward thinking is going to take the PR Representatives at American Income and National Income to new heights. The presentations were all outstanding and the fact you were able to get so many forward thinkers together in one room for two days of training just blew me away. As an old war-horse, I have sat in my comfort zone for too many years. I now have a renewed compassion to take what I learned and grow to greater heights. As Jim Wright said, 'Ceiling and visibility unlimited.' Congratulations to you, your staff, and the PR Council."

Richard S. Meshulam

"Although exhausted from the very intense two days in Waco, I am mostly grateful for the unbelievable effort made by all of you — and many others — to set us PR Reps up for what should be an unprecedentedly successful future! I do not impress easily — as those who know me well will attest — but I was truly impressed by everything. The materials were attractive, professional, and user-friendly; the strategies outlined were astutely, politically sound; and mostly the support that is so obviously there from Home Office to the PR Team for now and the future is unquestionably present. Given all of these things, those of us who do not succeed will be falling from their own weight. I do not intend to be one of those. It won't be long before I sit on the PR Council. How's that for a goal?"

Also, I was struck by the fact that the four top people in the Company actually sat through the entire seminar with us. That in itself is quite an investment and proof of how critical you all felt the summit — and therefore the PR Team — is to the Company meeting its goals for the coming year.

The presentation styles of all speakers, and the warmth exuded by all, made us, as Emeril Lagasse would say 'feel the love.' But let me assure you I know that as wonderful as the warm and fuzzies are, this is a business. And, with all the support I am now getting from all of you, and hopefully from our SGA, I will make you all proud.

Again, receive my gratitude for all the hard work which went into [the summit] and my pledge to make you proud. Warmest regards."

Alan Martyn
1952 – 2004

It is with great sadness that we announce Alan passed away peacefully in his sleep on Dec. 21, 2004, after attending the Salmon Kings game with his children.

Predeceased by his parents Bill and Dorothy Martyn, he is survived by his son Taylor, daughter Lindsay Marc, and their mother Barb in Victoria, sons Richard and Dylan in Kamloops; brothers and sisters Kathi, Lois Alf, Mike Ann, Eileen Rainer, and Tom; nieces and nephews Adrienne, Kelly, Alisa, Dan, Daniel and Alexandria; his aunts, uncles, and cousins; and his extended families, the Hunts and the Wingers.

Born on Aug. 13, 1952, in Vancouver and raised in Prince Rupert and Victoria, Alan was a strong believer in social justice and a life-long labour activist. A natural athlete who had proudly worn the Vic High colors, he was an avid golfer at Uplands Golf Course.

He was a State General Agent in the London, Ontario, Canada area with his partner Rick Altig. He also traveled extensively as senior vice-president of Altig International, and promoted new talent in the music industry in both Nashville and Victoria in his spare time.

Despite a serious heart condition in recent years, he lived life to the fullest with his cherished children and with his dear friends everywhere. He was larger than life and loved holding court at his rooftop office.

He touched many lives and will be deeply missed.

Portions of this write-up were taken from Alan's obituary published in the Victoria Times-Colonist.

Alan Martyn started his career with American Income and National Income at the Rick Altig Agency in 1989. He became an SGA in July 2000 partnering with Rick in London, Ontario, Canada area. He was a significant contributor to American Income, the Rick Altig Agency, and the Altig-Martyn Agency.

Patty George

One of the most humbling experiences I have ever had, I had with Patty George.

I had the privilege of interviewing Patty for a PR position in Detroit. She had come in determined to be the Office Manager, and used her administrative skills to support a new SGA! She was one of the most determined people I had ever met.

I convinced her that her skill sets; genuine warmth, people loving nature, organizational abilities, and trade unionist background — her years of experience working with the Teamsters Flight Attendants — would be a better fit for Public Relations. Patty was one of those gifted few who had the grace to wonder.

It is no surprise that she dove in head first to the political waters of Michigan, creating new relationships as “helper” for COPE dinners, GOTV activities, and general all-around labor activities which was an integral part of her nature.

Not only did her unabashed enthusiasm for her new-found career result in exceptional production results, her contagious warmth spread to all she touched. Many of us had the good fortune to celebrate her 60th birthday during the Public Relations Summit, this past December.

She was, of all things, an astute judge of character, and one who shared her observations freely. I was humbled by Patty's response to the PR Summit and the way it, and so many, touched her life. I know Patty had found a home with us at American Income and National Income.

We might only wonder how much each of us might have changed if Patty were an ongoing part of our journey.

Patty, may you bask in the wonder of light hereafter.

Patty George's tribute was written by Denise Bowyer, Vice President, National Director, Public Relations.

Patty George started her PR career with American Income through the Paul Rumbac Agency. Though her time with both labor and the AIL Agency was short, she had already made a difference in the Michigan market.

Denise Bowyer

Vice President, National Office
AFL-CIO

Politics, Power, & The Five Point Plan

As the AFL-CIO positions itself for a 2005 battle to win the hearts, votes, and representation of the unorganized work force, we must be supportive at every level.

AFL-CIO Organizing Director, Stewart Acuff, is planning new ways to raise the profile of organizing as an issue, to involve rank and file union members (which, yes, includes you the members of OPEIU Local 277), and to create comprehensive strategic campaigns to take back the moral ground: good jobs, decent wages, health care, and healthy communities.

Through a variety of strategies — establishing the Employee Free Choice Act, inciting lawmakers, and other public officials into active front line support of organizing drives, holding community rallies which highlight the issues at stake, and building coalitions to “march on the boss” — labor will drive the local political machine into a national political culture.

What does organizing and people-powered politics have to do with our 2005 Five Point Plan and our PR mantra “No Group Left Behind?”

- 1. Building Labor Alliances. I can't think of any better strategies than what Mr. Acuff proposes as a way to be introduced to “progressive” allies. Our collective memory tells us of the power of bonding by “marching on the boss” during a labor dispute. It begins and cements permanent relationships with our friends in the labor movement.
- 2. Electronic Mailings. There are hundreds of thousands of e-activists in every state. Most progressive grass roots groups educate and mobilize their membership online. E-activists are as close to a shop steward as you will find in a non-union environment. They are involved by choice, and they take their responsibilities seriously. Get involved, meet the executive directors, and offer to do an e-mailing to their online members.

3. Value Added Benefits. The initial value is in the “usage” of our most programs. Progressive offices and like-minded folks know families desperately need access to affordable prescription drugs, vision benefits, and dental care. We can offer something which provides “immediate” rewards for membership. Our Partners® program is a fabulous way to provide a short term solution for the bigger policy issues like health care reform.

4. Growing PR Teams. If you can't find someone who is smart, active, and a team player at a Jobs for Justice Rally, well to be quite frank, you aren't looking very hard. Your next ideal PR Rep is standing side by side with you at your next labor function — don't miss the opportunity.

5. Overdue Groups. One way to overcome any obstacle is to face it directly. The more involved you get, the more you know the players. You can start to ask questions of which groups are defunct, have merged, or quite frankly won't work with us. If you haven't gotten that “big group,” find someone standing by your side to help you.

As the AFL-CIO marches into their winter Executive Council meeting, a variety of strategies will be proposed, restructuring discussed, and resources allocated. Whatever the outcome, one thing is for certain; a unanimous voice “no working person left behind” will indeed be the invitation for millions of unorganized workers to join the family of labor.

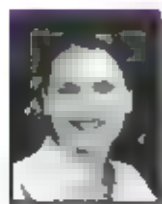

*Organizing, people-powered politics, and our Five Point Plan
— let's not leave anyone behind!*
